

Internet Access

How you connect to the Internet is crucial to the success of your company - your speed, security and performance. Telekenex offers reliable, dedicated, high-speed Internet Access T1 service that will give you peace of mind. Our Internet T1 delivery meets the most rigorous standards for network performance. As a result, you can concentrate on what's important, your business.

Delivered with speed ranging from full Internet T1 of 1.544 Mbps and above, it is the perfect solution for businesses that require high Internet connectivity. At any time you outgrow your current capacity, Telekenex can easily and quickly bond multiple T1s together for additional bandwidth and built-in circuit redundancy.

Key Benefits and Features:

- Intelligent routing technology with pre-determination of most efficient path
- Our network infrastructure has built-in redundancy and fault tolerance
- Dedicated and proactive service support – 24/7/365
- “Always On” network monitoring
- Highly redundant routing and route management technology
- Single connection to all major backbone providers
- Bypass congestion points on the Internet, avoid packet loss, latency and other difficulties that can plague conventional Internet connectivity
- Optimal data transmission- any time of day
- Aggressive industry Service Level Agreement